

GUEST LIST

ADMIRAL STANFIELD TURNER LUNCHEON

Thornton Bradshaw

President, Atlantic Richfield Company
International Oil Company
Leading spokesman for oil industry and business

David Handelman

CIA

STAT

Senior Vice President and General
Counsel, Twentieth Century-Fox
Film Corporation
Graduate Harvard Law School

Philip Hawley

Chairman, Carter, Hawley, Hale
Major Department Store chain with sales approximately $3 billion
Very important leader of Los Angeles business and civic matters

Tom Johnson

President of Los Angeles Times,
Protege of Lyndon Johnson

Charles "Chuck" Manatt

Partner, Manatt, Phelps, Rothenberg &
Tunney (U.S. Gov't.)
Los Angeles law firm
Leading Democratic fund raiser

Simon Ramo

Retired Vice Chairman of TRW and one of the founders of that company
Author and highly articulate scientist, businessman
Former Chairman of the President's Committee on Science and Technology

Rocco Siciliano

Chairman, TICOR - Major title
insurance and financial institution, headquartered in Los Angeles
Formerly Undersecretary of Commerce
1969-1971

William French Smith

Senior Partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher
Leading Los Angeles law firm
Highly active in Republican politics
Long time and close supporter of
Governor Ronald Reagan Reputably a leading candidate to become Attorney General if Reagan elected

Dennis C. Stanfill

Chairman of the Board
Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation

Peter Ueberroth

President of Los Angeles Organizing
Committee for 1984 Olympics
Formerly business executive Departing after lunch for Moscow meeting of the International Olympic Committee

Frank Wells

Co-Chairman of Warner Bros.
Rhodes Scholar
Brasenose College
Oxford University

Paul Ziffren

Senior Partner, Gibson, Dunn &
Crutcher, Major Los Angeles law firm
Chairman of Los Angeles Organizing
Committee for 1984 Olympics
Active in local and national Democratic politics